

POLICY TITLE	Workplace Health and Safety (WHS) Policy
INTRODUCED	August 2008
REVIEWED	November 2020
REVIEW FREQUENCY	Annually
RESPONSIBLE	ANDRA

Overview

The Australian National Drag Racing Association Ltd (ANDRA) is committed to providing, so far as it is practicable, its stakeholders with a structured environment to minimise risks to health, safety and welfare. ANDRA recognised that motor sport is inherently dangerous and will continue to strive to minimise risk to those involved through a shared and integrated approach to health and safety, and maintain access to the appropriate resources should any injury or illness occur during competition and related activities. This policy outlines the organisational commitment and policy in achieving this objective.

Responsibilities

ANDRA aims to meet its commitment by ensuring that work practices and procedures comply with or exceed the Acts and Regulations governing Workplace Health and Safety (WHS), Welfare and Rehabilitation.

As far as is reasonably practicable, ANDRA will achieve this by:

- Managing a comprehensive Health and Safety program which seeks to protect and enhance the health and safety of ANDRA stakeholders;
- Consulting with stakeholders on an ongoing basis regarding health and safety;
- Providing safe plant and safe systems of work;
- Providing written procedures and instructions to ensure safe systems of work;
- Identifying hazards, assessing risks and treating/controlling the hazards;
- Ensuring compliance with existing legislation, standards and where appropriate current industry practices;
- Providing information, instruction, education, training and supervision to personnel and contractors to the duties they perform, to ensure their safety;
- Encouraging ANDRA stakeholders to contribute and make suggestions about better ways to identify hazards and manage risks;
- Ensuring adequate health, safety, welfare and rehabilitation services are available;
- Allocating adequate resources to meet legislative responsibilities;
- Reviewing ANDRA records, accidents and near misses to identify opportunities for improvement;
- Reviewing the program at least annually.
- All persons are required to take all practical measures to ensure a safe and healthy working environment.

Accountabilities

Safety is a shared responsibility, and the following accountabilities apply to the implementation of this policy:

Management

In accordance with the relevant requirements of the individual states and territories, managers have a responsibility to implement this policy in their respective areas. Management is responsible to ensure;

- the provision and maintenance of equipment in a safe condition;
- that any injured person is supported immediately after any accident and treated with dignity and respect at all times.
- the identification of hazards, and the assessment and control of risks and hazards;
- active involvement in the development, promotion and implementation of health and safety policies and procedures approved by ANDRA;
- that assistance or expert advice is sought when required;
- that personnel receive training in the safe performance of their duties and assigned tasks;
- that appropriate consultation with personnel and stakeholders within their area of responsibility is facilitated;
- that safety issues and incidents are reported in a timely manner;
- that the facilitation of support, welfare and rehabilitation for those affected by safety related issues is actively supported.

Personnel/ Individuals

In accordance with the relevant requirements of the individual states and territories, all personnel and individuals have a responsibility to implement this policy in their respective areas. All personnel are responsible for;

- following all health and safety policies and procedures;
- utilising all equipment provided for their protection;
- operating within their level of competence and experience;
- reporting all known or observed hazards to management;
- co-operating with any action taken by ANDRA to comply with its legislative and moral obligations with respect to safety.

Evaluation, Monitoring and Review

This policy will be reviewed at least once annually or as required to ensure legislative compliance and continuous improvement.

Policy Application

This policy applies to all personnel, patrons and all persons present at ANDRA activities, workplaces, locations and facilities.
